Oklahoma Soldiers Get $100 For Y. From A

$17.50 Burro From N. M.

Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., Oct. 25.

—The Oklahoma national army men hailing from Newkirk, Biackwell, Berry, Ponca, Buffalo, Stillwater, Brid, Cashing, Drumright, Alva. Woodward, Shattnek and other communities, while en route to Camp Cody, at Vaughan, N. M., spied a small boy with a harro, which they hought with a collection amounting to $17.50. Then they sold him at 12 centa per "share," raising in this manner ever $190, which they presented to the Oklahoman F. M. C. A. general fund.

Herman Reick, of Biackwell, drew the burro, and he presented it to the Grand Correspondent as a souvenir.

Go Gasing at Night.

From time to time the instructors take their classes on night marches of several miles, gasing them with bombs and every conceivable method, much the same as they might encounter on the western front. The first man to detect gas gives the alarm and all hands don marks in double guilek time.

When in the vicinity of the tremches light hombs or sky pockets are exploded to guide those receiving the instruction.

Instruction.

Officers in Charge.

The inen who are responsible for the very successful gas instructions at Camp Cody are Lieut. John G. Shannonhouse, chief gas officer; Lieut. W. G. Bouve, assistant; Sgt. N. T. Sundby, instructor in gas make drill; Corp. E. B. Strømne, Prt. Frank B. Charine and Ptt. Harry Kolsch, associate instructors.
